

3/10

Not impressed.

WUAAAAAAAAHHH!!!

Vance Lee, is it?

Once you're done screaming like a girl,
we have business to discuss.

Wh-who are you?

Wh-where's Robin?

You see, Mr. Lee,

we found your tracks all over our system.

T-t-t-tracks?
Bu-but that's impos-s-ible!
I never leave-

Never leave any tracks?
Heh, that's what they all think,
until they get caught by me-

The name's Fray, btw.
Campus InfoSec specialist.

Are you aware that unauthorized access and tampering of the university's property, digital or not, is punishable by expulsion
and up to two years in jail or a $50,000 fine?

No... no...

this can't be happening...
what will my parents think?

And Alex...
she will never let me live it down.

Please! Spare me! I'll never do it again!
I'll never hack again!

You're just a Freshman, correct?

I do pity the young ones...

B-but you don't look any older.

Silence

I'm trying to feel sorry for you.

THANKS

Thanks to your little stunt,

we were able to fix that dent in our security, so how about this?

Since we are always short on penetration testers,

[I'll let you slide this one time, but in return, you work for us.]

No charges. No records.

Just help us identify vulnerabilities in the system so we can patch it up before any black hats can take advantage of it.

But of course.

I am risking my job here by letting you off the hook, so don't tell anyone. If the word gets out, the next thing you know, they'd all be expecting an easy pass.

You got it!

I'll be a penetration tester! And I won't tell anyone! So please, don't tell my parents.

we're heading out.

Hands in the air!

Drop everything!

Drop it or I'll shoot!

Don't waste your bullets.

Get in the car.
We're going after her.
